7. Claims 1-11, 14-27, 30-43 and 46-54 lack novelty under PCT Article 33(2) as being anticipated by Takagi et al. (US Patent 6,269,140 B1).

With respect to claims 1, 17 and 33, Takagi teaches a method, computer readable medium associated with a data processing section (20) and having a set of stored instruction, the execution of which causes a method to be performed (column 5, lines 45-62) and system for collecting computed tomography (CT) image data, comprising: irradiating a portion of the patient with x-rays from an x-ray source disposed in a rotating gantry and detecting ones of the x-rays transmitted through the portion of the patient body to obtain image data; rotating the gantry to collect a set of CT image data of a lung of a patient, wherein each set of the CT image data corresponds to a phase of a respiratory cycle (column 7, lines 4-20).

With respect to claims 2-5, 18-21 and 34-37, Takagi teaches repeating the step of rotating to start scanning of the portion of body of the patient at substantially same phase within the different respiratory cycles (column 7, lines 45-53).

With respect to claims 6-11, 22-27 and 38-43, Takagi teaches controlling a rotation speed of the gantry in accordance with the output signal of breathing phase of the patient (column 7, lines 5-20 and 42-50).

With respect to claims 14-16, 30-32 and 46-48, Takagi teaches generating motion data associated with a breathing of the patient. Further method comprises synchronizing the collected CT image data and the motion data and sorting the collected CT image data such that CT image data that correspond to a same phase of a respiratory cycle are grouped for CT image reconstruction (column 7, lines 7-20, claims 9-11).

With respect to claim 49 and 52, Takagi teaches a method for generating a computed tomography (CT) image and computer readable medium associated with a data processing section (20) and having a set of stored instruction, the execution of which causes a method to be performed (column 5, lines 45-62), comprising: irradiating a portion of the patient with x-rays from an x-ray source disposed in the rotating gantry and detecting ones of the x-rays transmitted through the portion of the patient body to obtain image data; collecting data samples representative of a physiological movement of a patient due to breathing; rotating a gantry to acquire image data of at least a part of the patient; gathering image data acquired at a same phase of a breathing cycle; and generating a CT image using the gathered image data (column 7, lines 4-21 and 42-53 and claims 9-11).

With respect to claims 50 and 53, Takagi teaches controlling a speed of the gantry based on the data samples (column 7, lines 42-54).

With respect to claims 51 and 54, Takagi teaches that the generating the CT images comprises constructing a volumetric image (column 5, line 63 - column 6, line 9).

NOTES TO FORM PCT/ISA/220

These Notes are intended to give the basic instructions concerning the filing of amendments under Article 19. The Notes are based on the requirements of the Patent Cooperation Treaty, the Regulations and the Administrative Instructions under that Treaty. In case of discrepancy between these Notes and those requirements, the latter are applicable. For more detailed information, see also the PCT Applicant's Guide, a publication of WIPO.

In these Notes, "Article," "Rule" and "Section" refer to the provisions of the PCT, the PCT Regulations and the PCT Administrative Instructions, respectively.

INSTRUCTIONS CONCERNING AMENDMENTS UNDER ARTICLE 19

The applicant has, after having received the international search report, one opportunity to amend the claims of the international application. It should however be emphasized that, since all parts of the international application (claims, description and drawings) may be amended during the international preliminary examination procedure, there is usually no need to file amendments of the claims under Article 19 except where, e.g. the applicant wants the latter to be published for the purposes of provisional protection or has another reason for amending the claims before international publication. Furthermore, it should be emphasized that provisional protection is available in some States only.

What parts of the international application may be amended?

Under Article 19, only the claims may be amended.

During the international phase, the claims may also be amended (or further amended) under Article 34 before the International Preliminary Examining Authority. The description and drawings may only be amended under Article 34 before the International Preliminary Examining Authority.

Upon entry into the national phase, all parts of the international application may be amended under Article 28 or, where applicable, Article 41.

When? Within 2 months from the date of transmittal of the international search report or 16 months from the priority date, whichever time limit expires later. It should be noted, however, that the amendments will be considered as having been received on time if they are received by the International Bureau after the expiration of the applicable time limit but before the completion of the technical preparations for international publication (Rule 46.1).

Where and to file the amendments?

The amendments may only be filed with the International Bureau and not with the receiving Office or the International Searching Authority (Rule 46.2).

Where a demand for international preliminary examination has been/is filed, see below.

How? Either by cancelling one or more entire claims or by adding one or more new claims or by amending the text of one or more of the claims as filed.

A replacement sheet must be submitted for each sheet of the claims which, on account of an amendment or amendments, differs from the sheet originally filed.

All the claims appearing on a replacement sheet must be numbered in Arabic numerals. Where a claim is cancelled, no renumbering of the other claims is required. In all cases where claims are renumbered, they must be renumbered consecutively (Administrative Instructions, Section 205(b)).

The amendments must be made in the language in which the international application is to be published.

What documents must/may accompany the amendments?

Letter (Section 205(b)):

The amendments must be submitted with a letter.

The letter will not be published with the international application and the amended claims. It should not be confused with the "Statement under Article 19(1)" (see below, under "Statement under Article 19(1)").

The letter must be in English or French, at the choice of the applicant. However, if the language of the international application is English, the letter must be in English; if the language of the international application is French, the letter must be in French.
